

CRASH (krash) *vi.*To collide with a loud noise DY.NAM'ICS *n.pl.*The science dealing with motions produced by given forces

Crash # 1

Male in early 20's Speed was involved, but no alcohol. No seat belt was worn, lost control and hit a telephone pole, then a dump truck, (2 collisions), was ejected from the vehicle. Sibling was fatally injured in a similar type crash.

Crash # 2

Young woman was returning from a night of drinking with two hours sleep at a friend's house. She still had a high BAC when she crashed into a truck head on early the next afternoon. Truck driver survived the crash.

Crash #3

Tractor Trailer driver on a straightaway hit another T.T., (rear ended) at a marked construction zone on I-80. (2 to 1 lane with signs and warnings) He never slowed down.

Crash # 4

An 18-year-old distracted driver (who was later found to be under the influence of drugs) was using her iPod when she lost control and crossed two lanes of traffic, striking two pedestrians. One of the two young college students she hit was killed and the other was seriously injured.

Crash # 5

A high school student was transporting another student passenger. He left school traveling at an excessively high rate of speed and crashed car into a tree. He had no belt and was fatally injured. His passenger, who was belted, did survive the violent crash.

Crash # 6

Alcohol related crash and excessively high rate of speed. Speedometer was locked on 90 MPH upon impact. The crash occurred during daylight in good conditions.

Crash # 7

Crash occurred where there was no paved road during winter months at further end of township. Estimated speed was 50's hit a bump and became airborne. Victim was not discovered for 2 days.